The Max and Victoria Dreyfus Foundation Grant

Click here to visit the funder's website

Award Amount	$1,000 – $20,000
Deadline	November 10, 2022
Description	The Foundation aims to support organizations and programs for which a relatively small amount of funding might make a large difference. The Foundation will consider requests to support museums, cultural and performing arts programs; schools and hospitals; educational, skills-training and other programs for youth, seniors, and persons with disabilities; environmental and wildlife protection activities; and other community-based organizations and programs.
Issue Areas	Education, Community Development, Arts, Humanities, Workforce Development, Environment
States	All states
Localities	All localities
Eligibility Type	Nonprofits (with 501(c)(3) status)
Eligibility Details	Our application requires organization and contact information, answers to questions related to your organization's non-profit status, answers to questions related to past awards/requests, a summary of your organization's purpose and programs, a summary of how potential funding would be utilized, a letter of request, your most recent 990 (if applicable), an itemized organization budget, an itemized program budget (for organizations applying for program support), and a copy of your organization's IRS letter stating your Section 501(c)(3) tax-exempt/not a private foundation status.
Editor's Notes	If selected, the foundation will alert you by the end of May 2023.

Funding Source	The Max and Victoria Dreyfus Foundation
Funding Source Type	Private Foundation

Hansen Family Foundation Grant

Click here to visit the funder's website

Award Amount	Undisclosed, but the average grant amount (based on IRS 990 data) is $4,491.
Deadline	September 15, 2022
Description	The Foundation believes that it can provide the highest value to the grant recipients where gifts provide a start or a “seed” that can provide a benefit over time. Accordingly, the Foundation will generally give preference to those organizations, individuals, and/or initiatives that will stand the test of time, will inspire others to get involved, and will be a manifestation of our mission. It is the Foundation’s belief that its philanthropic assets will have the greatest impact on smaller and non-political charitable organizations, so it is likely that most grants will be made to these types of organizations. However, this focus is not exclusive and the Foundation will consider organizations of any size that otherwise meet its mission, guiding principles, and grant-making guidelines. It is intended that end-users get 100% of the charitable contribution with no pass-through of any funds to another organization or person not directly responsible for the use of the money as understood by the Hansen Family Foundation. Additionally, recipient organizations must have at least a 75% giving vs. operating cost ratio to be considered. An organization with a lower ratio requires a 100% BOD-affirming vote to be considered.
Issue Areas	Youth, Education, Environment, Arts
States	All states with an emphasis on Virginia nonprofits
Localities	All localities
Eligibility Type	Nonprofits (with 501(c)(3) status
Eligibility Details	There is no geographic limitation of the recipient organization or individual (either where it is located or where the Foundation’s involvement may occur). As a practical matter, however, the Foundation may be better able to include gifts of its time and talents where the charitable recipient is located where Board members live or work. The Foundation seeks charitable recipients that: <ul style="list-style-type: none"><li>● Share its value and beliefs</li></ul>

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Embrace the Foundation’s commitment and potential involvement</li> <li>• Want to be accountable and demonstrate results (where the Foundation can cause effective change)</li> </ul>
Editor’s Notes	This foundation is based in Virginia Beach, VA.
